JOIN US APRIL 30th at CENTEREACH HIGH SCHOOL!

The state's obsession with high-stakes testing is a failed experiment that needs to end. Teachers, parents and students around the state have been working for years to fix New York State's broken testing system. If we are going to restore trust in the system, we need to fix these tests NOW.

Join parents, teachers and administrators as we pressure our elected officials to fix the flawed tests.

When: Tuesday, April 30

Time: 6:30-8:30

Place: Centereach High School, 14 43rd Street, Centereach
